THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE OF THE Independent Order of Odd Fellows OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE

To the Officers and Members of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Officers of All Grand and Subordinate Lodges under the Jurisdiction of The Sovereign Grand Lodge:

Decree of Cancellation

WHEREAS, since the cessation of hostilities in Europe, the emergencies created by the World War have increased, rather than diminished, on the North American Continent because of the redeployment of troops from the European theatre to the Pacific theatres, and

WHEREAS, the Director of War Mobilization, and the Convention Committee of the Office of Defence Transportation, of the United States of America have, by virtue of Emergency Powers in them vested, ordered the cancellation of all group meetings attended by more than fifty individuals coming from beyond the trade area or normal commuting zone of any city wherein such group meeting is scheduled to be held, in the United States of America, and

WHEREAS, the Governments of the United States of America and of the Dominion of Canada have urgently requested all-out efforts to conserve the resources, food supplies and facilities of the respective nations, and have requested the co-operation of all patriotic citizens and organizations to this and, and

WHEREAS, it is the declared policy of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows to lend every effort toward the prosecution of the war to final and complete victory, and the cancellation of the 1945 session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge will eliminate travel by those who would attend and release hotel and other conference facilities, the need and use of which by the Military Forces is vital to the success of the war efforts of the United Nations;

NOW THEREFORE, I, D. D. Monroe, Grand Sire of The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows by virtue of the duty imposed upon me, and the authority vested in me, by Article XII, Section 1 of the Constitution of The Sovereign Grand Lodge as amended, and acting with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, do hereby

ORDER AND DECREE the cancellation and abandonment of the one hundred and twentieth annual communication of The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and affiliated organizations, heretofore scheduled to be held in the City of Birmingham, State of Alabama, United States of America, commencing on the 17th day of September, A.D. 1945, and I do further—

ORDER AND DECREE that all officers of The Sovereign Grand Lodge shall continue to hold and exercise their respective offices, and that the representation therein of the respective jurisdiction shall remain as presently constituted, until the next succeeding session of said Sovereign Body may be held, as provided by the Constitution and General Laws of the Order, and I do further—

DECREE AND DECLARE that this action has been taken in co-operation and compliance with the Directives of the United States Government and that by virtue thereof there shall be no lessening of the activities of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, the Grand and Subordinate Bodies of the Order, and the members thereof, in their efforts toward the attainment of the aims and objectives of this fraternity. A state of extreme emergency exists—there can be but one course for Odd Fellowship to follow. But the exigencies of the times shall not discourage us! The path of progress is not always smooth but it is the only path we will follow and we shall continue toward our goals, stumbling sometimes, perhaps, but never losing our determination or our courage, and when we again assemble it will be with the realization that our sacrifices have not been made in vain but that we have done our part, and in the doing have found the limitless opportunities which exist for those who seek to serve.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of The Sovereign Grand Lodge to be hereunto affixed. Done at the City of Clayton, State of New Mexico, United States of America, this 16th day of July, A.D. 1945, in the One Hundred and Twenty-seventh year of our Order.

D. D. MONROE, Grand Sire.

Attest:

E. G. LUDVIGSEN, Grand Secretary.

What the Lodges Are Doing

Hold Impressive Memorial Service

The Rebekahs and Oddfellows of Lethbridge and district held a special memorial service in the Oddfellows' hall recently with a large attendance to pay respect to all their departed Sisters and Brothers. A program was arranged by the committees from the different lodges in the city. The principal speaker was the Rev. Leslie L. Grant.

The service opened with the singing of "The Old Rugged Cross." This was followed by a duet by Miss C. Webster and Miss H. Lindsay. The Rev. Grant took for his topic: "Friendship, Love and Truth."

Following this address Geo. Brown gave a violin solo, Brother Roy Clemis gave a talk on Oddfellowship and Sister Rith Stenbeck sang "The Lord's Prayer." The singing of the hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was followed by a travel talk by Lance Corporal Percy Smith, V.G., of Windsor, N.S., of his visit to different lodges he has had the pleasure of visiting during his trip across Canada and in the U.S.

Mrs. Geo. Brown was the accompanist for the different artists. After the service a light lunch was served. After lunch everybody joined in community singing led by Brother Reg. Myers with Sister Eva Lowe at the piano. Brother Marshal Stitt, D.D.G.P., acted as chairman.

Oddfellowship

The talk on Oddfellowship by Brother Roy Clemis follows:

We have assembled tonight to pay loving tribute to the memory of those brothers who have departed and crossed that silent river to join their loved ones gone before. In reverence and humility, in honor and in love, we salute their memory. We were bound to them by the chain of sincere friendship, unfeigned love and sincere truth. We enjoyed their association and appreciated their labors for the upbuilding of the Order they loved so well. Some have been gone for many years, and their memory is almost forgotten. While there but recently departed and their loss is still mourned by loving hearts, some were taken during the prime of their life while others lived to a ripe old age, and, like the setting sun, gradually sank to rest.

Their work is now finished and the lips that once spoke fraternal greetings are now forever silent but we will ever cherish a recollection of their virtues and look forward to the time when, with clearer vision, we will again know them in a form that will never change.

It is fitting at this time that we should review the work of Oddfellowship and to renew our obligations and duties. Born of the love of humanity, to minister to human needs, it has ever been loyal to its principles and faithful to its trust. American Oddfellowship was initiated in the City of Baltimore, April 26, 1819, by a young Englishman, Thomas Willey. He had been a member of the Order in England and was very active in the lodge. He migrated to America in 1817, and there, in a strange city and a strange country still hostile to England and all Englishmen from the war of 1812-14, started up his business.

He made very slow progress forming new acquaintances. After talking to several people about the Order, he came across one who had been a member. An ad. was placed in the paper, and finally they had more members. There, under unfavorable circumstances, and after hard work, in three weeks ten members had joined, and so under these difficulties they began the movement that was later to become the greatest fraternity the world has ever known. The object of those early brothers were for aid and protection of the members when in sickness and in travelling, and for the purpose of benevolence and charity.

Movement Spreads

The movement spread very rapidly and today, 126 years later, the movement has spread to the entire civilized world and has spent millions of dollars for the 56 homes owned and maintained to care for the aged and to relieve distress, take care of the sick, bury the dead and educate the orphan.

Our Order is founded upon the most pure and exalted principles from the pages of Holy writ. Our degrees are arranged to exemplify the principle of Friendship, Love and Truth, of Faith, Hope and Charity, and in no way interferes with those duties we owe our God, our country, our family or ourselves. Our members are from every walk of life, rich and poor, learned and unlearned, and the influence of our work is felt in the home, community and government, and many of the principles taught by our Order have found their way into the statute books of our country.

Owing to the many community and government institutions and aids such as old age pension, workman's compensation, etc., the financial responsibilities of our Order have been greatly relieved and provide more time for higher duties of Oddfellowship. The time when our Order had to struggle for mere existence has passed. It is now powerful for good. Dormant, it would soon dwindle away. Struggle has always been one of the elements of its existence. It is a struggle of light against darkness, of liberty against bondage, of virtue against vice. It is, moreover, a single-handed contest in which none but those personally engaged can win the victor's reward. There is a battle to be fought in each human heart before the vices and passions and prejudices which separate the children of a common Father shall be driven from the earth.

Our order must be as bright as the light in the lighthouse. The keeper was boasting of his light in the lighthouse when the stranger asked what if it should go out. "Sir," he replied, "out yonder where nothing can be seen are ships going to every port of the world. If tonight one of my lights went out, in a six months or a year a letter from Australia or somewhere I never even heard about saying on such and such a night the light burnt out, the watchman neglected his duty and the ships were in danger. So on dark and dreary nights I look out and feel the eyes of the world are on my light. So go out? Never!"

And so it is with Oddfellows who are governed in their actions by the principles we inculcate.

They feel the eyes of the whole world are gazing with interest upon their light, and so can we be careless of the high trust committed to our keeping as to suffer our light to go out? No, never! Therefore, let us practice Oddfellowship in our daily lives and thereby hasten the time when the Golden Rule will assert its power and obtain dominion over the world—when man shall hail his brother man with fraternal greetings, when war shall be known no more, when one law shall bind all nations, tongues and kindred of the earth, and that law shall be the law of universal brotherhood.

We want your Lodge news!

Prospects Are Good to Revive Lodge

Not having been to Hillhurst Lodge No. 46, Calgary, for the last three weeks, news from that source will be conspicuous by its absence.

The annual vacation period was the reason for non-attendance at lodge. This time of relaxation was enjoyed around the lake at Invermere. The three link emblem attached to my car windshield was the means of introducing me to Brother Bill Jones and Sister Jones, of Canmore. Despite the fact that the lodge has surrendered its charter, they are still interested in the work of the order. I believe if Bro. Jones and a few more members got busy they could revive interest in that particular district. Incidentally, he informed me that he enjoyed reading the news items from this lodge and others in the Alberta Odd Fellow.

I understand on good authority, that after the last issue of the fraternal press, C. W. Mc., of Alberta No. 1, received a bottle of hair tonic or mange cure through the mails.

I also understand that I am accused of being the sender, and I hereby deny such accusation.

I do not waste my money on hair tonic trying to stimulate a growth of hair on a billiard ball. You take it from there, Mac. Nuff sed.

I also hear Bow Valley lodge brought in a goodly number of candidates to No. 1 for initiation and that the first degree will be conferred on them in our hall in the near future. No doubt C. W. Mc. will give a full account of this, in his own inimitable style, elsewhere in the family journal. If he does not, I will tell you myself in the next issue.—F.W.H.

Samaritans Hold Successful Picnic

I'll have to apologize for missing last month's write-up, but what with holidays, etc., I somehow missed it. I'm out of the Province at present, but thought I'd better report on the picnic at least.

The picnic went over pretty good, I thought, although there were a few omissions, etc., which another year could be avoided.

The banners that Sam Van Buren had made were a real good idea and really advertised the Sanctorum. Any Samaritan that wants one can get one from Sam Van Buren for 35c.

A good program and dance was held in the I.O.O.F. hall after supper and Bro. Suntance entertained us with a couple of readings.

After the dance everyone went back to the recreation grounds for the winner roast and things broke up in the wee small hours.

Bro. Brandt collected some of the boys and went out playing golf the next morning.

I hope that the Samaritans will excuse this short write-up as I've had the "flu" for the last day or so and am not feeling so good right now. I intend to start haying in a day or so and then harvesting, so will be kept busy for a while.

D.G.M. Pays Visit Alliance Lodge

On July 19, after several attempts, the Deputy Grand Master, Bro. Alfred C. Woodard, of Edmonton, did make his visit to Alliance and right glad are we he did, for it was a "red letter" day for us. Brothers came from Galla-had, Killam, Loughed and Hardisty, and still another happy thing, we had two Brothers from Ontario and one from Edmonton.

There was to have been a Brother from Killam to get his second degree but for same cause which we have not found out, he did not turn up, but that will be ironed out when Killam meets.

Brother Woodard gave us all an "ear full" when he talked on the work that will have to be done when the boys come hom, and pointed out clearly that Odd Fellowship is more needed than ever if the things we stand for are to become real in the trying times before us.

Brother Woodard stressed the five points put forward by the Grand Master in his letter to the lodges in April and Alliance will think over them further when we meet next time as there are a lot of good things there when we put them into action.

Now that more degree work is being put on, the secret work came into the limelight and many questions were asked as to how to correctly read the key book. It is sad that the Grand Lodge has not made plans whereby brothers in office of the country lodges can get help to learn this important work.

There are good things ahead for Alliance, and watch us during the coming fall for we have a bunch of new members lined up and will be busy.

Come again, Brother Woodard, and any other Grand Lodge officers. Of course, the latch string is always out to all visitors.—A.P.

Many at Funeral of Calgary Member

Joseph Levi Richard, 81, died recently in his home, 730 6th Ave. W.

Mr. Richard was born in La Havre, Lunenburg county, Nova Scotia. He came to Calgary in 1910, and in the capacity of building inspector helped to build many of the first homes in Elbow Park.

He was employed with the C.P.R. Ogden shops in the car department as a carpenter from 1919 until retirement in 1930.

Mr. Richard was a member of the Pro-Cathedral of the Redeemer; a member of the I.O.O.F. Sandstone city lodge No. 17; of the Encampment, and of the Canton I.O.O.F.; he was also a member of the Ancient Order of Foresters.

Surviving are his wife, Villa Catherine; one brother, Elizah, Atlantic, Mass., one cousin, Rev. A. D. Richard, Wainwright.

Canon W. E. Herbert conducted services in Jacques' chapel. Burial took place in the Oddfellows' plot, Union cemetery.

The graveside service was conducted by Sandstone City Lodge No. 17 I.O.O.F. There was a good representation of Oddfellows and Rebekahs at the funeral chapel and at the graveside.

Honorary pallbearers were: Bro. R. McLachlan, Bro. E. Stark, Bro. R. By-graves, Bro. J. Dinglay, Bro. W. Sea-wright, Bro. W. Montgomery.

Active pallbearers were: Bro. A. R. Dauncey, Bro. J. J. B. Little, Bro. A. P. Van Buren, Bro. C. Bunn, Bro. A. E. Gore, Bro. A. H. Mace.

Paint Lodge Hall, Improve Grounds

There is not so much to report this month. Things are quiet in regard to lodge work; however at a recent meeting it was decided by Samaritan Lodge No. 91, Vulcan, to revert back to meeting every second and fourth Wednesdays, instead of the meetings as now held on the second and fourth Thursdays. The meetings were changed from Wednesday to Thursday to accommodate younger members who had joined the militia and who parade on Wednesday evenings. However, now that few, if any, members belong to the militia, it was decided to revert back to the original meeting nights.

The I.O.O.F. hall looks 100 per cent better, for we have had it painted and it presents a very imposing sight in its new coat. The grounds have been cleaned up and it is an asset to the town of Vulcan.

Just a passing thought; where are some of the travelling gavelers? We would like to receive one and make a visitation with it. Whoever brings it to us can be sure of a royal welcome. How about it some time this fall?

—A.H.C.

Lodges Welcoming Servicemen Home

The lodges throughout the Province are welcoming home their service members. Those from Alberta lodge No. 1, I.O.O.F., Calgary, who have returned so far are Bros. Bob Hayes and Bill Glover, discharged from the R.C.A.F., and Bro. Gordon Cranston from the R.C.N.V.R. It should not be long before the "job will be finished" for all and they will again be back on "Civie Street." The rough corners of their memories will rub off as the years roll by, the grim and disagreeable will fade while the happier recollections take on even a more rosy glow.

Holiday months do not usually produce much in the line of degree work. This year has proved the exception. Hillhurst has been busy with their own candidates as well as a class from Bassano. Sandstone and No. 1 have been lending a helping hand. Now it is No. 1 assisting Bow Valley No. 89, Cochrane, with a class of ten initiates and receiving support from the other two city lodges.

A big storm and muddy side roads prevented four of the Cochrane candidates from reaching the main highway to Calgary with the result No. 89 arrived at No. 1 on August 3 with but six of their ten candidates. A mixed degree team under Bro. Doc. Chapelle conferred the initiatory degree in a manner that left little to be desired. An endeavor will be made to initiate the balance of the class and then proceed with the rest of the degrees.

Visitors at this particular meeting included Bro. Bill Bowden, Ponoka No. 11, Bro. Burt McFadden, R.C.A.F., Peterborough, No. 111. P.G.M. Everett McPherson, Samaritan No. 81, Vulcan, and Bro. W. C. Lester, Beiseker No. 84. The visitors and members were almost sure that they were eating ice cream after the meeting. The social committee insisted on calling it something else because ice cream is scarce and where would they get five gallons? Serounging, perhaps.

The gentle reader should not be too disturbed by the belligerent attitude of a certain old duffer of Hillhurst No. 46. He was a fine fighting man twenty some odd years ago and has the ribbons to prove it. However, time has mellowed him into one of the best natured lads in the west. That a recurrence of an old ailment has interfered with his holiday in the Windermere Valley is regrettable. All of the foregoing despite the bottle of mange cure that arrived at the Temple addressed to this correspondent. If it works, all is forgiven; if not, someone will have something to live down.

Memorial Day is set for Sunday, Aug. 12, and it is to be hoped that the members will give the observance the support to which it is entitled. It is disheartening for a committee to be charged with a duty and sent to perform it only to find that the membership at large show very little interest.

Having just returned from the mountains, the writer could not quite see the way clear to return for the Samaritan picnic at Banff. As a matter of fact, Banff in July is just like a farmer in the middle of harvest. The logical time to visit the Lodge there would be late September when the weather is still good, the members not busy and plenty of accommodation available.

It is now official that the Sovereign Grand Lodge will not be held this year. This will be one of the many conventions that will have to be held over in deference to troop movements. An early victory in the Pacific may clear the way for next year's sessions.

D.D.G.M. on Visit Prairie City Lodge

At their regular meeting recently, Prairie City Lodge No. 135, had an official visit from the District Deputy Grand Master, Percy M. Hamilton, Spirit River, who was accompanied by Brothers J. N. Thomas, W. J. Thomas, J. Bair, R. C. Scott, F. Desney, Joe Rapple, E. Overland (recently returned from overseas), and X. L. Peacock. After the meeting a light lunch was served in the banquet room.

Killam Gives Aid Conferring Degrees

Besides conferring degrees on 12 new Brothers in Killam Lodge, No. 76, our Degree team seems much like a travelling circus as we have assisted in degree work at Provost, Alliance and Czar during the past term.

On the night of July 8 we journeyed to Alliance to assist Alliance Lodge in conferring the second degree on 11 new members. Our trip home was marked by the loss of a wheel from Brother Parker's car. This wheel, which, by the way, was not the spare, could not be found, and Bro. Parker decided there could not have been one on. In the morning, a good Brother located the wheel which had trespassed far from the King's Highway.

In spite of our little mishaps we had a very pleasant evening together and finished up with a most superb lunch at which Brother Bonnett excelled himself.—D.V.Y.

Watrous Lodge is Set for Fall Work

At a special meeting of Watrous, Sask., I.O.O.F. lodge on July 24, the installation of officers was very ably carried out by D.D.G.M. J. M. Rutherford and staff from Govan. Following are the new officers:

J.P.G., R. E. Preston; N.G., E. W. Kirkham; V.G., M. Harrington; recording secretary, J. G. Townley; treasurer, J. L. Reed; warden, H. R. Busse; conductor, Stan Stacey; chaplain, B. D. Beavers; R.S.N.G., A. C. Rishel; L.S.N.G., C. Shafer; R.S.S., J. Myhr; L.S.S., J. H. MacLachlan; R.S. V.G., M. Shafer; L.S.V.G., E. J. Stacey; I.G., E. D. Maddin; O.G., Bruce Gill.

The regular meeting of Watrous Odd Fellows Lodge, No. 63, held on Tuesday, June 5, was in the form of a memorial service to honor those sisters and brothers who have passed to the Great Beyond in the past year.

The memorial address was given by Rev. Geo. Entwisle of Watrous, who gave a very inspiring message to all members present. He stated he was honored to give such a talk to an order to which he did not belong, but an order based on certain principles of the word of God and the Holy Bible.

Previous to this service, the third degree was conferred on Brothers H. R. Busse, E. D. Maddin, E. J. Stacey and M. Shafer, who were presented with their membership certificates. Also by transfer the lodge welcomed Bro. W. D. Scampton. A large attendance, including five members from Young, enjoyed this splendid evening.

Bro. G. H. Halvorsen suffered a painful accident on July 26 while at work in the C.N.R. yards here, when his left leg was badly mangled by a freight, necessitating amputation of the left leg just below the knee. We, the members of No. 63, were shocked to hear of Bro. Halvorsen's mishap. We hope for an early recovery and are going to do all in our power to readjust him for the future. At time of writing Bro. Halvorsen is coming along fine at the local hospital.—R.E.P.

REBEKAH ACTIVITIES

REBEKAH ANNIVERSARY PROCLAMATION I. O. C. F. OFFICE OF THE GRAND SIRE

To the Officers of all Rebekah Assemblies and Rebekah Lodges; and to all Members of the Rebekah Degree, and other Branches of Odd Fellowship:

GREETINGS:

September 20, 1945, marks the Ninety-fourth Anniversary of the inauguration of the Rebekah Degree of Odd Fellowship. It is not my purpose to here recount the accomplishments of this Degree. They are a well known part of the history of our fraternity. Suffice to say that the women of this degree have been leaders in the establishment and maintenance of the Homes of the Order, the Moral Educational Program of Odd Fellowship and our Educational Foundation. They have through the years worked shoulder to shoulder with the men of the fraternity in carrying out the practical program of Odd Fellowship—"To visit the sick, relieve distress, bury the dead and educate the orphan." Through wars, famines and pestilences they have reached beyond the membership of the fraternity to aid in the relief of all mankind.

The entire fraternity may proudly and justly say to the Rebekahs, "Well done thou good and faithful servants" at the conclusion of ninety-four years of service to humanity. But this is in reality just a beginning! As Rebekah Odd Fellowship stands at the threshold of its ninety-fifth year, with its more than 600,000 members, it faces the greatest challenge of its entire career. What of today? and what of tomorrow? Are we prepared in our thinking and acting to take our proper place in the rebuilding of human society as a means toward the end that the Golden Rule may become a universal reality?

Throughout society today selfishness, wishful thinking, easy alibis, temper tantrums, misunderstandings, petty jealousies, rages, fears, grudges, hates, prejudices, intolerances, malicious gossip and the like, are to be found,—all evidences that civilization is still emotionally immature. If Rebekah Odd Fellowship is shackled by any of these evidences of immaturity, may it highly resolve on this Ninety-fourth Anniversary to cast off all such hindering characteristics so that it may face the future clear-eyed, straight thinking and unafraid.

The welfare of the "Youth of the World"—all youth, regardless of color, race or creed, is essentially the concern of women. Youth is beauty at its loveliest; strength at its highest promise; energy at its greatest vigor; courage at its bravest; hope at its fullest assurance. Youth is the embodiment of our future. It is essentially the privilege of women to create home conditions, community conditions, national and international conditions, under which youth may pass gracefully from this period of beauty to noble and useful adulthood. Rebekahs, thousands strong, in the days ahead are urged to make it a chief aim in life to keep the children of the world clean and fine and strong,—for through them, and them alone, can the world be made better.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge has wisely ordained that September the Twentieth of each year shall be devoted to celebrating the creation of the Rebekah Degree of Odd Fellowship.

Therefore, I, D. D. Monroe, Grand Sire, do, by virtue of the authority in me vested, hereby designate the Twentieth day of September, 1945, or a date near thereto, for the proper celebration of the Ninety-fourth Anniversary of the founding of Rebekah Odd Fellowship, giving proper acknowledgment of the guidance of our Heavenly Father through the years. All branches of the Order are requested to join with the members of the Rebekah Degree in the celebration of this momentous event.

In connection with the holding of fitting programs in the hundreds of Rebekah Lodges throughout the world, I humbly beseech that the army of women belonging to Odd Fellowship be challenged to give proper attention to the potentialities of such group working unitely to stamp out everything in the world which mars the beauty of human life and relationships. True glory consists in doing what deserves to be written, in writing what deserves to be read, and in so living as to make the world happier and better for our living in it.

Done at the City of Clayton, State of New Mexico, United States of America, this 16th day of July, A.D. 1945, in the year of our Order, the one hundred and twenty-seventh,—and of the Rebekah Degree the ninety-fourth.

D. D. MONROE, Grand Sire.

Attest:

E. G. LUDVIGSEN, Grand Secretary.

Two Lodges Hold Joint Ceremony

At a special meeting held on Wednesday, July 11, Princess Rebekah Lodge No. 82, Fort Saskatchewan, held a joint installation with Onward Rebekah No. 114, from Lamont.

Sister Myrtle Cundall, D.D.P., and her installation team were present to perform the ceremonies.

We were pleased to have with us for the occasion two of our members who have been absent for some time, namely, Sister Katherine Dennis, P.N.G., and Bro. T. M. Baker.

Sister Cundall presented Sister Ar-dith Gordon with her P.N.G.'s jewel. Sister Gordon, in a few well chosen words, thanked the members for the support given her during her term of office.

Sister Agnes Stetson, P.N.G., presented Sister Cundall with a gift on behalf of the officers and members of Princess.

At the close of the meeting, the social committee from Princess served a very tasty lunch to some 50 guests.

Dominion Rebekah Lodge Meeting

Dominion Rebekah Lodge No. 41, Lethbridge, held their regular meeting on July 12, and in spite of the extreme heat well over 60 members and visitors were in attendance. Sister Cowell, N.G., presided during the business.

Sister Bertha Allison, financial secretary, read the semi-annual report, which shows good progress both with regard to increase in membership and in finances.

Visiting sisters were present from Pincher Creek, Calgary and Revelstoke. Sister Craig, P.N.G., of Alexander No. 8, Pincher Creek, who has been a Rebekah for 35 years, mentioned how much we can learn every time we attend different lodges and see the different way the work is done. She also told of visiting various lodges at the coast.

Sister Florence Stafford, D.D.P. of District 17, was in attendance for the purpose of installing the officers, and was assisted by Sister Isabel Theobald as Deputy Marshal, and a staff consisting of the following sisters:

D. War. Helen McNab, D. Rec. Sec. Mabel Blair, D. Fin. Sec. Jessie Morden, D. I.G. Elsie Risler, D.O.G. Isabel Nuttall, D. Chaplain Mabel Watson, D. Musician Eva Lawe.

The following sisters were the officers installed:

Jr. P.N.G., Amelia Cowell; N.G. Kay Rea; V.G., Eunice Hodgins; R.S., Rhina McVean; F.S., Ruth Stenbeck; War., Gertrude Hardie; Cond., Renee Baldwin; Chap., Harriet Fansett; Musician, Eva Lowe; R.S.N.G., Isabelle Nuttall; L.S.N.G., Mabel Blair; R.S. V.G., Helen McNab; L.S.V.G., Gertrude Fansett; I.G., Mildred MacFarlane; O.G., Louise Pankhurst.

A vocal duet by Sisters Annie Morris and Ruth Stenbeck and the singing of "Blest Be the Tie that Binds" brought the installation ceremony to a close.

Sis. Watson, P.P., then presented Sis. Cowell with her P.N.G. jewel, expressing the wish of all that her health would improve in the future. She referred to Sis. Cowell's pleasure at being able to see her daughter join the lodge during her term and then asked Sis. Ethel Grunewald to come up and pin on her mother's jewel.

Sis. Risler, P.N.G., then presented Sis. Cowell with a gift from her officers.

As a remembrance of her visit to 41 Sis. Evo Lowe, P.N.G., presented Sis. Stafford with a gift. In reply Sis. Stafford mentioned how close her tie with Dominion is, not only her sister, who had just made the presentation, but three other members of her family belong to 41.

Sis. Jessie Morden, P.N.G., presented Sister Bertha Allison with a radio lamp with the best wishes of the lodge for happiness in the future. Sister Allison, who is to be married July 25, has been a member for little more than a year, but her sunny disposition has endeared her to the members and her work during the past six months as financial secretary has brought her in contact with most of them and she will be greatly missed. As Sis. Allison was being conducted to her seat those present joined in singing "She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The newly installed noble grand appointed the following committees to work with her:

Visiting: Sisters Hodgins, Cowell, Matthews, Bambrick, McNab, Blair and Stilt.

Property: Sisters Hardie and Baldwin and Bro. Twaddle.

Membership: Sisters Eva Lowe, Johnston, Schoening and Stenbeck and Bro. Blair.

Finance: Bro. Morden, Sisters Theobald and McVean.

Degree Captain: Bro. Morden.

Following the meeting members and visitors enjoyed a banquet prepared and served by the social committee under the convenorship of Sis. Isabelle Nuttall.

Recently a member of 41 now residing in Calgary told me to use lots of names—"How'm I doing now, or did the Editor use the black pencil too often?"

Received a long letter from Sis. Roseworn at Coutts last week. She hopes soon to be back with us and asks me to say "Hello" to all the gang.

Sister Mary Easton is still under doctor's care but is home from the hospital. So sorry to report Sister Jane Unsworth of Faith 93 is in hospital but hear she is doing nicely.

Sis. Warren is still on the sick list but improving, and Sis. Marlow is able to get around the house a bit again.

Sis. Morden's son Tommy, who was wounded overseas some time ago, is reported back in hospital.

Rumor has it that Sis. Gwen Henderson is joining the C.W.A.C. Will say more about that when we have the facts.—R.M.

New Vice Grand of Dominion Lodge 41

One never knows what to expect from Dominion No. 41 lodge at Lethbridge. For example, we have a habit of calling the meeting to order any time after 8 p.m., but just for fun Sis. Kay Kea, N.G., called us to order sharp on time on July 26, and believe it or not, only two sisters were late.

Not to be outdone Sis. Eunice Hodgins, V.G., who presided at the meeting on August 9, again rapped the gavel when the clock said 8 and this time only one sister was late. It just goes to show what can be done when we try.

Our big surprise on July 26 was the resignation of our newly installed Vice Grand. Just four days after installation her husband's company decided to transfer him to Calgary and he leaves about Sept. 1. As Sister Hodgins says, these big companies have no consideration for Noble Grands or Vice Grands. We shall very much miss Sis. Hodgins and hope she will make many friends in her new home. It is very indefinite when she will be leaving as there is the matter of finding some place to live.

At our meeting on August 9 Sis. Elizabeth Allison was elected Vice Grand. Sis. Allison has been a very active worker for some years, but has always been shy about taking the chair, but at last has been persuaded to try. Good luck, Sister Allison, we are all backing you.

Speaking of Sis. Allison reminds us that her daughter Bertha is now Sister Wolfe. She was married July 25 and will make her home at Brandon, Man., for the present.

There are still several sisters on the sick list, but all are showing signs of improvement. Sister Mary Oswald has a new son; both are doing nicely.

Sis. Elizabeth Willett's husband has undergone a major operation but is improving. Her daughter has been a patient in Vancouver General Hospital, but has arrived home by plane owing to her father's illness.

Sister Edith Goldie, who is now residing in Vancouver, has taken out a withdrawal card. We understand she plans to join a lodge at the coast.

Sis. Jane Henderson's son Billy has returned from overseas. His wife has recently joined the C.W.A.C.

The editor has asked for criticism on the "Odd Fellow." Personally, we think it's so far ahead of the old one that we are not in a position to pass remarks. If members would like to criticize, how about telling your correspondent and we'll send it along to Mr. Editor.

One of Sister Nuttall's young hopefuls fell down the stairs at Eaton's the other day—wonder who was most scared. Fortunately no bones were broken.

In a letter to the secretary recently, Sister Annie Wilson, in Vancouver, wished to be remembered to all the sisters. How better do this than through the "Odd Fellow."

Nothing exciting is happening this weather. If we reported the doings of all members this would sound like a travel journal. Suffice is to say that Sister Rea, N.G., is enjoying a holiday at Waterton Park.

Remember, the secretary is still accepting subscriptions for the "Odd Fellow."—R.M.

Sandstone Lodge Installs Officers

On July 16, the regular meeting of Sandstone Rebekah Lodge No. 83, Calgary, was held, with a good turnout of members from the city lodges and members from other provinces. The Noble Grand called on Sis. Gilkes, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, Sis. Adams, P.P. of the Rebekah Assembly of Manitoba, and Sis. Balshaw, P.N.G., a member of the lodge residing in Regina Sask., to address the members.

Mrs. Jean Lamb, district deputy president, assisted by Mrs. William Gadsby and her installing staff, installed the lodge officers as follows:

Junior past noble grand, Miss Mildred Edlund; noble grand, Mrs. H. Payne; vice grand, Mrs. J. T. Shelley; recording secretary, Mrs. A. S. Dewis; warden, Mrs. Fred Parrott; conductor, Miss Laura Nuell; chaplain, Mrs. Frank Hodson; R.S.N.G., Mrs. J. W. Gillespie; L.S.N.G., Miss Patricia Fanning, R.S.V.G., Mrs. A. J. Miller; L.S.V.G., Mrs. Francis Bouck; inside guard, Miss Elizabeth Dueck; outside guard, Mrs. C. R. Bunn, and musician, Mrs. R. H. Montgobery.

Mrs. H. H. Day, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, presented Miss Mildred Edlund with a past noble grand's jewel, a gift from Miss Edlund's father.

Sis. Lamb, D.D.P., presented Sis. Bunn, P.N.G., and Sis. Edlund, J.P.N.G., with Past Noble Grand certificates.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Hodson, social convenor, and her committee.

On July 30, a very pleasant social evening was spent. The games were in charge of Sis. Dawson, P.P., and refreshments were served by Sis. A. Smith, P.N.G., and her committee.

Install Officers Sincerity Lodge

It has been two months since we reported from Sincerity Rebekah Lodge No. 38 at Alix. But in that time we have been quite busy. We had a most enjoyable visit from our President, Sis. Minnie Gilkes. Over twenty sisters and one brother from Mirror were present. Sis. Gilkes gave a very interesting talk, and three new members were initiated.

To commemorate Memorial Day there was a large attendance of Sisters at the cemetery to pay tribute to our departed sisters and brothers, and a wreath and marker were placed on each grave.

We also had a very pleasant social evening to welcome two English war brides to our community. A gift was presented to each one.

On June 11 we initiated another new member, Sis. Ethel McMahon, who now resides in Ponoka, was present at our meeting and was presented with a 15-year Veteran's Jewel. We also sent our best wishes to Bro. Sanderson, who has just passed his 90th birthday.

On July 6 the District Deputy President and staff of Red Deer Lodge installed our new officers for the ensuing term:

Jr. Past Grand, Sis. Chris Wilton; N.G., Sis. Celia Toepfer, P.N.G.; V.G., Sis. Nola Bell; Rec. Sec., Sis. Vera Richards; Treas., Sis. Mary Warren, P.N.G.; Fin. Sec., Sis. Hilda Carlson.

Adeline Rebekahs Memorial Service

The members of Adeline Rebekah Lodge No. 54, Wainwright, held their final meeting for the term on Thursday, July 6, with a good crowd in attendance.

A very impressive and beautiful memorial service was held in memory of departed members. Special mention was made of the late Bro. W. J. Huntingford, who passed away in January of this year. The late Bro. Huntingford instituted and was a charter member of Adeline Rebekah Lodge on July 6, 1916, just 29 years ago.

Flowers were placed on the altar for each member of the Lodge who has passed on. The beautiful bouquet of cut flowers that was laid on the altar in memory of Brother Huntingford was later presented to Sister N. Huntingford.

The members of Wainwright I.O. O.F. Lodge No. 45 also joined in the services.

During the ceremony Sister M. Lissimore acted as Noble Grand, Sister E. Wilbraham as Vice Grand, Sister B. Davison as Chaplain and Sister M. Carsell as P.N.G. as well as parts taken by several of the other members. An appropriate solo was rendered by Sis. M. Carsell accompanied by Sis. M. Mitchell at the piano during the evening.

At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the members.—D.P.

Past N.G. Club is Now Organized

The P.N.G. of Golden Sheaf Rebekah Lodge of Three Hills has formed a Past N.G. Club and named it "The Roosevelt P.N.G. Club," the president being Sis. M. Howe, a charter member of Golden Sheaf.

On May 17 Sis. L. Goodman, V. President of Rebekah Assembly, visited our lodge. Degree was exemplified. We enjoyed her visit very much.

Sixteen members of Golden Sheaf visited Prairie Rose Lodge at Acme on May 30 for the installation of Sister Reddikopp, D.D.P. A lovely evening was enjoyed, besides a grand lunch.

On June 15 the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows of Three Hills had a community social evening in honor of the returned soldiers, sailors and air force. The hall was filled to its full capacity and everyone had a grand time, the program being made up of songs, readings, skits and finishing up with a dance and lunch.—J.A.

Back Five Point Plan

In recent months many complimentary references have been made to a Five Point Plan which was outlined in the message of Grand Master Fox which was published in the April issue of the Alberta Odd Fellow. So much interest was expressed in this plan that it has been reprinted in this issue.

The points enumerated by the Grand Master are worthy of special reference and particular attention. These are all the more so as lodges which have had a summer recess will be resuming their work next month for the fall season.

One of the fundamentals is that the hand of Friendship be shown at all times. This is a spirit that serves to enhance the strong appeal which Odd-fellowship makes to all concerned.

It is readily recognized that members themselves can do a lot in seeking new members. There is no doubt that a strong active membership is a primary objective. The selection of capable and energetic officers is another essential.

The Grand Master also has drawn attention to the importance of keeping up the interest of new members. Here is a great opportunity for the social committees.

Now that many returned servicemen and servicewomen are arriving in Alberta, the Lodges have a splendid opportunity to welcome and assist them in their rehabilitation needs and furtherance of their re-establishment.

Grand Master's Message

In the April issue of the Alberta Odd Fellow, a strong appeal was made by Grand Master Charles Fox for the support of the entire membership of the Subordinate Lodges in the Jurisdiction of Alberta for a Five Point Plan. This created such wide interest and was of such a stirring nature that requests have been made that it be reproduced. Accordingly, these requests have been acceded to with pleasure.

The Grand Master's message outlining this plan follows:

FIVE POINT PLAN

1. See that your lodge rooms are kept in good order and comfortable and that your regalia is clean and that the furniture is in good repair, and that a good, friendly feeling prevails among your members, and that the hand of Friendship is shown at all times.

2. Direct your efforts toward the increasing of the membership of our Order by seeking new members—either by initiating, reinstating, or otherwise. Select a good active membership committee to promote this work.

3. Select officers that are willing and capable of doing their work and see that the Secretaries are qualified and functional and have their reports sent in to the Grand Secretary on time. That the D.D.G.M.'s carry out their duties in proper manner so that the Grand Secretary can complete his work at the proper time.

4. Have every lodge appoint an active Social Committee as this is very important to keep the interest of the new members. Do not confine your social invitations to members of the Order, always remember that our future membership is outside of our lodge room today. Remember at all times to keep your social activities within the scope of our constitution.

5. Direct your attention to a sincere welcome to your members who have served in the Armed Forces upon returning home, and have your rehabilitation committee ready to direct Brothers who require assistance in re-establishment, remembering at all times the declared principles of our Order.

ON GREETING NEW MEMBERS

All Odd Fellows who feel a real pride in their membership in the Order regard that membership as a high fraternal privilege. The member who has that feeling naturally desires to share that privilege with other worthy men who have not been brought into the fold. If he is mindful of his obligations both to the Order and to the uninitiated, he will seek out these non-member friends and acquaintances and present to them an opportunity to share the high privilege of membership—in plain language he will solicit their applications.

But he must also be in a position to "give a reason for the faith that is in him." He will be better qualified for this test of the value of membership if he will subscribe for and read a good fraternal paper or magazine, keeping a file of the papers and marking such informative articles as he thinks will make a favorable impression upon the uninformed, committing the substance of such articles to memory, or loaning the papers to his prospective candidate to read for himself.

NOTICE TO SECRETARIES

Secretaries of subordinate lodges that install officers on July 1st, please send in the change of noble grand and secretary for your change of card in our lodge directory. It is unfair to the new noble grand to wait until his term is nearly over before he is recognized as the noble grand, so please see that we have this information promptly.

ADVERTISE YOUR LODGE

Your Lodge ad in the Lodge Directory page signifies progressiveness and is a mark of respect to your chief officers.

Esther Officers In New Stations

At the regular meeting of No. 1, Esther Rebekah Lodge, Calgary, held July 9, we had a visitor from Winnipeg, Manitoba, Sister Susie Adams, Past President. She was introduced by Sister C. Horwell, P.N.G., and given the honors of the degree, after which the N.G. extended to the visitor on behalf of Esther Lodge a very hearty welcome.

The semi-annual report was read by the secretary and we had four sisters that have changed their names during the last term, Miss Grace Nicholson is now Mrs. Lawrence Berger, and Sister Mattie Huser has got married.

The auditor's report was read and a hearty vote of thanks given to Bro. A. R. Dauncey.

The writer wishes to express appreciation to the officers and members of Esther. I have enjoyed my term of office as Noble Grand and thank you for your loyalty.

Your friendship, kindness and deeds of love, will ever treasured be; and the future will hold only pleasant thoughts of the term you gave to me. Little by little the time goes by; short if we sing through, long if we sigh. Little by little, an hour, a day, and another term has passed away.

Sister Jean Lamb, D.D.P., assisted by Sister Gadsby, Deputy Marshal and staff, installed the following members in their respective stations for the term ending Dec. 31, 1945: Sisters Z. T. Dixon, Jr. P.G., Amie Tait, N.G.; B. Bailey, V.G.; Nellie Whitfield, P.N.G., R.S.N.G.; M. Ashley, L.S.N.G.; K. Tait, P.N.G., R.S.V.G.; E. Wills, P.N.G., L.S.V.G.; A. Andrews, Chaplain; Doris Crane, Warden; Mary Crane, Conductor; A. Tambling, Pianist; A. MacNeil, Inside Guardian; and Hazel Wood, P.N.G., Outside Guardian.

Under the direction of Sister Mae Clark, of Anoka Lodge, several sisters put on a very impressive drill; and Sister Walsh sang several solos.

Sister A. Tait presented Sister Dixon with a Past Noble Grand certificate; Sister Dixon thanked the lodge for same.

Sister H. Wood, P.N.G., then presented Sister Dixon with a china dish from the officers of Esther; Sister Dixon thanked the officers with a few well chosen words.

Sister Godfrey presented Sister Dixon with a gift of a pair of Sterling silver nut dishes, from Brother Dixon.

Sister Tait, N.G., called on Sister Lamb, D.D.P., to speak, and Sister Lamb, in her talk, asked the officers and members to give their full support and co-operation to the Noble Grand.

Sister Adams, P.P., was asked to speak also. Sister Adams was in Calgary on a holiday and attended the Esther meeting.

Light refreshments were served by the social committee in the lunch room, at the close of the meeting.

On July 23, the writer was spending her vacation in Banff the Beautiful, while Esther Lodge opened in regular form with Sister Tait, N.G., in the chair. Sister Tait opened the meeting at 8 p.m. and closed at 8.55 p.m. There is nothing to report from this meeting.

A birthday greeting for our Sisters whose birthday is in the month of August:

However many birthdays come,
They need not be alarming,
For know you, she is always young
Who always is so charming.

—Z.T.D.

New Officers of Hope Rebekahs No. 33

Hope Rebekah Lodge No. 33, Ponoka, installed their new officers at the regular meeting held on Friday, July 13. These are as follows:

N.G., Sis. Jean Harman; V.G., Sis. Anabel May; Warden, Sis. Carrie Algar; Conductor, Sis. Gladys Perkins; Chaplain, Sis. Eleanor Thirsk; Musician, Sis. Maude Granlund; R.S.N.G., Sis. Lily Goodman; L.S.N.G., Sis. Chrissie Gee; R.S.V.G., Sis. Annie Roberts; L.S.V.G., Sis. Irene Holben; I.G., Sis. Bertha Froman; O.G., Sis. Mildred Dittberner; S.S., Sis. Fern Lynn; S.S., Sis. Gertrude Lewis; B.B., Sis. May Thorn; B.B., Sis. Dlys Hughes.

Visiting Committee: Sisters May, Bascom, King, Anderson and Granlund. Hospital Committee: Sisters Watt and Thorn. Birthday Committee: Sisters Koleyak and Gee. Finance Committee: Sisters Freeman, Russell and Cline. War Chest Committee: Sisters Watt, Thomas and Cline. Property Committee, Sisters Algar, Perkins and May. Membership Committee, Sisters Pendleton, Goodman, Somshor and Headley. War Work and Red Cross: Sisters Roberts, Barnhouse and Newton. Degree Work, Sis. Koleyak and Harman.

Sis. May West, D.D.P. of District 93, of Millet, accompanied by her marshall, Sis. Alice Wagner, installed the officers, with the assistance of Past Noble Grand from Hope No. 33. Following the meeting a dainty lunch was served.

Many of the Rebekahs assisted in the various booths at the Stampede on July 2 and 3. The proceeds are for the Ponoka Community War Chest.

On Sunday, July 8, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs held their annual Decoration Day. The well-kept graves of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs show the many hours of work spent by the committee and their helpers.

Honor Retiring N.G. Jewel Rebekahs

The completion of a busy term as N.G. of Jewel Rebekah Lodge No. 25, Edmonton, was climaxed for Mrs. R. M. Macdonald on Thursday, July 5, when she was installed as Junior Past N.G. Mrs. M. Cundal, District Deputy President, on behalf of officers and members, presented her with her jewel and wished her much happiness in wearing it. On behalf of her mother and father, who have been members of the order for many years, and who are still keenly interested and actively engaged in lodge work, he father, Mr. A. Browning, is Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Encampment of Alberta, and her mother is also a P.N.G. of Jewel, Mrs. E. Lepard presented Mrs. Macdonald with a corsage of pale yellow roses and white gladioli.

Mrs. Macdonald responded to both presentations very fittingly in her usual gracious manner. Everyone present deeply regretted that her mother and father were unable to be present on such a memorable occasion.—J.M.

President Visits Spirit River Lodge

On Wednesday evening, June 20, Sister M. Gilkes, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, made a visit to Busy Bees Rebekah Lodge No. 79, Spirit River. A lunch was served after lodge and a few of the Brothers of I.O.O.F. Lodge No. 136 joined us for the occasion. A fine talk was given by Sister Gilkes, which made us all very pleased to have her with us and wish she could visit more often.

With deep sorrow we report the death of Sister Elsie Morovic on July 3. She had belonged to the Order for 40 years. Sister Morovic was a member in good standing and was a P.N.G. At the time of her passing she held the office of chaplain. She was 78 years old and came to Spirit River when there were but very few people settled here. The Sisters held a funeral service at the graveside.

SASKATCHEWAN REBEKAH LODGES HOLD 32nd ANNUAL SESSION

Frances Kalman Named President When Gathering Held at Saskatoon; Wide Scope of Year's Work Is Reviewed in Reports

The 32nd annual session of the Rebekah Assembly of Saskatchewan, I.O.O.F., was held in the Legion Hall, Saskatoon, opening formally at 9 o'clock on Wednesday, June 13th.

On the afternoon of the preceding day registration of delegates began at 2 o'clock in the lower hall of the Odd Fellows' Temple. During the afternoon the Saskatoon Past Noble Grands' Club entertained the visiting Rebekahs with a tea. The lace covered table centred with larkspur in a low crystal holder made a very pretty picture. Pouring tea were four Past Presidents, Edith McKenzie, Mabel Mabee, Catherine Mason and Flora Buie. A most entertaining pantomime, entitled "The Magic of Music," was presented by members of the club, with Sister Mrs. Erva Cowan acting as accompanist. This was followed by dance numbers by pupils of Miss M. Boyle.

On Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock a special session of the Rebekah Assembly was held for the purpose of conferring the Assembly Degree on a class of Past Noble Grands and Past Grands. At the close of this special session the visiting members attended a meeting of Miriam Rebekah Lodge No. 24 and witnessed a beautiful degree by the staff of that lodge under the direction of Degree Captain Sister Mrs. Fraser.

At the formal opening Wednesday morning a staff from Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge No. 5 seated the officers and past Presidents of the Assembly. This ceremony was under the direction of Sister Lennan. Two color bearers bearing large Union Jacks came first, followed by two tiny flower girls, one in blue and one in pink, carrying a basket of pink carnations. The President of the Assembly, Sister Kalman, was then introduced and escorted to her seat, after which the Assembly officers and Past Presidents were introduced and each presented with a corsage. Sister Pendleton, of Colonsay, sang a very beautiful solo, then the little flower girls were brought forward and each presented with a bracelet in memory of the occasion.

Immediately after the opening of the session the President gave her thought for the day which was: "To Ease Another's Heartache Is to Forget Our Own."

The President then named the personnel of her committees.

The supplementary report of the committee of printing and supplies was then presented. Arising from this motions were passed to have prepared in pamphlet form and placed in supplies for sale a paper by Sister Nita Cowan in the 1929 Journal, also paper by Sister St. John from the 1929 Journal, Installation for D.D.P.'s from the 1939 Journal, and speech given by Sister Flora Sheets at the A.R.A. at the Toronto sessions. Another motion was that as soon as possible we again purchase badges. This report showed that the volume of supplies sold was almost double that of the preceding year.

Sisters Flora Buie, P.P., and Jessie Roth, P.P., were asked to retire and introduce Brother Alfred Woodard, Dep. Grand Master and Past Gr. Patriarch of Alberta, and Brother Dawson, Past Grand Patriarch of Saskatchewan. The members of the Assembly, under the leadership of Sister Thompson, greeted the visitors by singing "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." Brother Woodard extended greetings from Grand Lodge, Grand Encampment and Rebekah Assembly of Alberta and then gave a very interesting address, and particularly asked the Estevan delegate to take back greetings from himself and Sister Woodard to Sister Ruby Gleiser, P.P. of the A.R.A. Brother Dawson conveyed greetings from Brother Haney, present Grand Patriarch of Saskatchewan. After these brother had retired the Assembly Secretary read greetings received from the following:

Sister Maude Pringle, Past President, now resident in Toronto; Secretary of the Assembly of Quebec; Sister Josie Morrow, President of the A.R.A.; Sister Florence Groat, Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Manitoba; Sister Emma Lou Hariman, Vice-President of the A.R.A.; Sister Inez Crosby, Secretary of the A.R.A.; Sister Ada Day, Secretary of the Assembly of Alberta; Dr. Wm. McBride, Past Grand Master, and family, Vancouver; Secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario; Rebekah Assembly of Georgia; Rebekah Assembly of Alabama; Sister Sadie Patrick, P.P., of Victoria; Sister Ruby Gleiser, P.P. of the A.R.A.; Sister Nellie Huntingford, Wainwright, Alberta.

The committee on fraternal delegates again retired and introduced our fraternal delegate from Manitoba, Sister Piggott, P.P., and also a visitor from our sister province, Sister Rungay, from Newdale, Man.

The Home and Benevolent Fund committee read a report of their work during the year. The board reported a very generous response from the lodges this year. The highest per capita donation was from Fidelity Lodge at Kamsack, a lodge which at the beginning of the year had, along with the citizens of Kamsack, suffered loss through the disastrous cyclone which struck that town. They were awarded the Cunningham Cup for the highest per capita donation to the home and benevolent fund. The board, at the present time, hold in bonds $20,650.00. Two of the bonds, to the value of $1,000.00 and $50.00, were purchased during the last Victory Loan drive.

Sister Nita Cowan, convener of the Patriotic committee, advised that there was a bank balance of $76.50 left in the Patriotic Fund and asked what the Assembly wished done with this amount. It was suggested that it be used to provide some equipment in a military hospital and on motion of Sisters Kuski and Blankstein the decision was left with the Patriotic committee.

Sister Myrtle Blankstein, P.P., of Kamsack, thanked the lodges of Saskatchewan for the prompt and ready assistance given them following the cyclone. The secretary's report showed that a total of $392.90 had been given in money while 17 boxes had been sent as well.

The committee on Judiciary and Legislation brought in recommendations to amend sections of the Rebekah and Assembly constitutions. These were passed by the Assembly in session.

On Wednesday evening a concert and dance was held in the Legion hall. The program included violin selections given by pupils of Mrs. Grace Adshead, dance number by Pupils of Mrs. M. Adams, readings by Miss Peggy Hoover and vocal solos by Miss C. Reichard and Mrs. Edna Pendleton.

A very beautiful and impressive memorial service, under the direction of Sister Buie, P.P., and Sister Thompson, was held in the Legion hall on Thursday morning. Just preceding this service Sister Sinclair, P.P., on behalf of Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 63, of Shaunavon, dedicated a memorial Bible presented by them to the Assembly, in memory of Sister Elizabeth Edmunson, P.P.

At the back of the stage was a large cross with several steps leading up to it. On these one of the members of the memorial staff stood by the cross while another knelt on the step. At the front of the stage two large candelabra stood, each holding seven lighted candles. Just in front of each of these stood a basket of flowers. Below the stage was a table on which rested a large "R" made of roses from the garden of Brother Riche of Vancouver, sent in memory of Sister Riche who passed away last fall. An anchor at the front of the table was filled with flowers by members of the staff as the names of departed Sisters and Brothers were read. Sister Pendleton sang several very beautiful solos, particularly impressive was that of "My Mother's Bible." Flowers were also sent by Brother and Sister Bishop of Carn-duff in memory of their mother.

Following the opening of the morning session on Thursday, the President, Sister Kalman, gave her thought for the day: "Sincerity is the Very Foundation Stone of True Friendship."

The first order of business following the opening was the election of officers, the following officers being elected:

President, Sister Jean Sadler, Moose Jaw.
Vice-President, Sister Caroline Hansen, Melville.
Warden, Sister Margaret Barber, Balgonie.
Secretary, Sister Florence Arnold, Moose Jaw.
Treasurer, Sister Gladys Starrak, Moose Jaw.

One member of the Home Fund board was due to retire and on election to fill this place Sister Nita Cowan was re-elected.

Sisters Roth, P.P., and Puie, P.P., then retired and introduced Brother Lombard of the University of Minnesota, Grand Chaplain of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and special deputy to the Grand Sire Brother James Hagerman, Past Grand Sire of Sovereign Grand Lodge. These brothers were introduced and welcomed by our President, followed by the singing of "Always." Brother Lombard brought greetings from the Grand Sire and a very fine address. He especially stressed the present need of assistance to resuscitate, revitalize and extend the work of Odd Fellowship in the stricken countries of Europe from which it had been banned when they were over-run by Nazism and Fascism. As an illustration he pointed out that the church which is not missionary dies. Brother Hagerman also made a strong plea for aid to the rehabilitation fund, asking that every effort be made to fulfill our Grand Sire's request for 50c per member for all Rebekah Lodges.

After these brothers had retired, Sister Ruby Ward, Past Assembly Secretary, and now a member of the C.W.A.C., was introduced and welcomed.

Sister Piggott, P.P., of Manitoba, brought greetings from her Assembly. She complimented the staffs for the impressive and dignified degree work and also for the memorial service.

The suggestion was brought in by Sister Eddy, P.P., that the committee on Judiciary and Legislation should meet on the Tuesday preceding the session. After considerable discussion it was decided that it would be in the interests of efficiency to have a number of the committees with heavy duties meet before the session, and the matter of arranging this was left with the executive.

Sister Roth introduced Brother Patterson, Grand Master of Manitoba, Brother Scott, Past Grand Master of Saskatchewan, and Brother A. C. Woodard, Deputy Grand Master of Alberta.

Brother Patterson in a brief speech conveyed greetings to our Assembly from the jurisdiction of Manitoba. Brother Scott conveyed greetings and good wishes from the Grand Lodge to the out-going and in-coming officers of the Assembly. Brother Woodard extended greetings from his jurisdiction and informed us that he had celebrated another birthday with us. The Assembly expressed their congratulations and good wishes by singing "Happy Birthday to You."

Sister L. Purvis and her staff then assisted with the installation of the Assembly officers. Sister Mary Stoker, of Tisdale Lodge, but now residing at Crooked River, assisted in this ceremony by presenting each officer with a handkerchief and a rose.

After the installation of the elective officers, Sister Sadler named her appointed officers as follows:

Marshal, Margaret McGregor, Moose Jaw.
Conductor, Eva Black, Regina.

Chaplain, Edith Gordon, Rouleau.

Inside Guardian, Beatrice Johnston, Weyburn.

Outside Guardian, Martha Eggen, Kincaid.
Musician, Della Chegwin, Moose Jaw.

The new President, Sister Jean Sadler, then installed her District Deputy Presidents.

A.R.A. Honor Rolls were presented to Deborah No. 12, Dubuc; Omega No. 27, Ogema; Wildey No. 65, Mawer; Royal No. 66, Mortlach; Kennedy No. 105, Kennedy; Caron No. 112, Caron; Brilliant No. 80, Cut Knife.

Meritorious Service pins were presented to Sister Rheta Nickel, Weyburn, Sister Beatrice Haney, Gull Lake; Sister Beatrice Kingston, Cut Knife.

The Cunningham Cup was presented to the delegate from Fidelity Rebekah Lodge No. 90. Sister Florence Arnold, on behalf of the Assembly, presented the retiring President, Sister Kalman, with her Past President's Jewel.

Two charters were received from Grand Lodge, one for Thelma No. 77 of Colgate, and one for Starlite No. 127, of Milestone.

The Travelling Gavels were given to the incoming President to start on their journey.

Two of our Past Presidents, Sister McKenzie, of Calgary, and Sister Steward of Vancouver, who have not been with us for some years, spoke briefly, expressing their pleasure at being among old friends again.

The incoming officers spoke briefly, expressing their appreciation of the honor done them.

This was followed by the presentation of numerous gifts and flowers to both retiring and incoming officers, after which the 32nd session of the Assembly of Saskatchewan was declared closed.

Fraternally submitted,
FLORENCE ARNOLD,
Assembly Secretary.

Members Observe 25th Anniversary

On July 23, members and friends of Helping Hand Rebekah Lodge No. 74, Bowden, and members and friends of I.O.O.F. No. 31, gathered in the I.O. O.F. hall to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Helping Hand.

Of the original charter members, 10 are still living, with six being present.

There were games and musical selections, and Sister Elva Piggott, D.D.P. of District No. 10, on behalf of the members, presented the charter members with an engraved silver teaspoon, after which everyone sat down to a banquet.

On August 5, members of Helping Hand and I.O.O.F. No. 31 joined in their annual memorial service.

A short service was held in the I.O. O.F. hall, and then everyone proceeded to the local cemetery where graves of the deceased members were decorated with flowers, and an appropriate verse read.—F.B.

Service Members Are Welcomed Home

Harmony Rebekah Lodge No. 11, High River, held its last meeting for the summer months July 12. The next meeting will be in September.

The business was mainly reports given by the committee regarding High River sports day and sponsoring of the Queen of Smokes. A hearty vote of thanks to all committees was given.

Sister Ella Fraser, the newly crowned Queen of the 1945 sports day, expressed her appreciation of the support given her by the Rebekahs and I.O.O.F., and spoke of the enjoyment and experience she had gained.

The Rebekahs are very proud of their queen and the work she has begun by helping Rev. Bainbridge and Legion workers in initiating the plan for a welcome home for returned service men and women.

After lodge business was over the members played bingo, Bro. Lain winning the prize. The social committee served refreshments including strawberry shortcake. Sister Chapman, V.G., then presented Sister Cousins with a beautiful leather handbag and purse of money from the Rebekah Lodge in recognition of her work in Lodge. Sister Cousins thanked everyone in heartfelt words for the beautiful gift. She also feels other sisters work much harder for the good of the order than herself.

The welcome home reception for service personnel, held in the town hall on July 26, met with a fine response. There was the queen and her seven young hostesses with Mr. Briggs and Mr. Dafoe for the Smokes committee, and Rev. J. W. Bainbridge for the Legion. Each returned man registered and was welcomed by Mr. Briggs. The queen and hostesses of the evening then took over, and in a short time everybody knew everybody.

A splendid dance program was provided. After the dancing, which took a couple of hours, Mayor MacLeod welcomed the guests on behalf of the town of High River. An exceptionally good concert program followed. After lunch all enjoyed a sing song. Then Tommy Logan, president of the Legion, High River, rounded up the service men and women in the centre of floor while the civilians formed a circle, all joining hands and singing, "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." Between forty and fifty service personnel accepted the invitation.

This reception of service men and women, we understand, will be sponsored by different organizations each month. There will be a welcome home. This reception was given by the Smokes Committee of High River.

—E.C.

Do You Just Belong?

Are you an active member, the kind that's liked so well,
Or are you just contended with the badge on your lapel.
Do you attend the meetings, or mingle with the flock,
Or—do you stay at home and criticize and knock.
Do you take an active part to help the work along,
Or are you satisfied to be the kind that "just belong"?

Do you ever go to visit the good member who is sick?
Or do you leave the work to just a few, then talk about that clique?
Come to the meetings, help with hand and heart;
Don't be just a member, but take an active part.
Think this over, won't you, you know right from wrong,
Be an active member, instead of "Just belong."

—From Unity Rebekah Lodge No. 26.
